

You are here: Home -> Novelty Clocks -> Ladies watches from MO0G1E Damoiselle D – specimen of femininity and flawless beauty

Ladies watches from MO0G1E Damoiselle D – specimen of femininity and flawless beauty

Posted by admin on December 18th, 2011 No Comments Printer-Friendly

Description:

Independent watchmaker Damoiselle D introduced another delicious novelty MO0G1E.

An elegant collection of jewelry watches brand was initiated by Veronique Mueller. Veronique Mueller, wife of Ian Muller – designer and goldsmith, working with many famous watch companies, believes that the desire for novelty and inspiration – features that are special emphasize feminine beauty.

In the hours Damoiselle D merged old traditions Swiss watchmaking and French aesthetics.

New MO0G1E has refined oval white gold, adorned with 80 diamonds weighing 0.68 carats. The dial covered with blue glaze and is in perfect harmony with the central white arrows and glittering body. Watches come in a black leather strap.

Hours devoted to MO0G1E famous series of paintings by Claude Monet “Water Lilies”. The famous Impressionist water lilies captured at different times of day and year. Established in 1898-1908 years a series of landscapes were exhibited at the Paris Gallery Durand-Ruel. Monet continued to work on a series of water lilies, creating canvases in large format.

More Watches

